Day1

FRIDAY 20 SEPTEMBER 2019

Arrival Day

Upon arrival into Tokyo , go to your hotel by own and check in for your three night stay.

Day2

SATURDAY 21 SEPTEMBER 2019

Tokyo

Explore Tokyo at your own leisure today.

Tokyo means 'Eastern Capital' and is made up of a patchwork of over 1000 neighbourhoods which conjoin together to create a mega metropolis. Each district has developed it's own personality over the years which helps to refine where you choose to explore during your stay here.

The Shibuya District is on most tourists must-see lists, featuring the busiest pedestrian crossing in the world with enough people crossing at rush hour to fill a rugby stadium. As is Asakusa on the north-east fringe of Tokyo Metropolitan, which pays homage to the areas cultural history thanks to it's preservation of ancient buildings and artisan traditions.

The list goes on and there are more including Ginza – noted for it's luxury shopping, Shinjuku – noted for its entertainment and Roppongi – legendary for its nightlife. The patchwork that is Tokyo Metropolitan is endless, so you'll need to find out for yourself!

Day3

SUNDAY 22 SEPTEMBER 2019

Match Day

This evening, action begins as Ireland VS Scotland (16:45 Kick off) at the International Stadium Yokohama. You will go to the the stadium from your hotel and return to your hotel by own when the match finishes.

Day4

MONDAY 23 SEPTEMBER 2019

Tokyo to Kanazawa

Today you depart Tokyo for Kanazawa on the bullet train. This in itself is a uniquely Japanese experience. The trains always depart and arrive very punctually and travel at speeds up to 270 kilometer per hour. Kanazawa is one of Japan's best preserved historical cities and once in Kanazawa, you will transfer to your hotel for a two night stay.

Day5

TUESDAY 24 SEPTEMBER 2019

Kanazawa

Kanazawa is a popular tourist destination. The city translates as the 'stream of gold' which is fitting as almost all of Japan's gold comes from here. Indeed it is famed for its gold, gardens and Geisha. There are two Geisha districts, Higashi Chaya and Nishi Chaya, either side of the city which visitors gather to, hoping to catch a glimpse of Geisha. Not forgetting the Nagamachi Samurai quarter which is considered to be one of the best in Japan due to its well preserved streets and buildings.

Kanazawa is well known for its three tea districts; Higashiyama, Nishichaya-gai and Kazue-machi. This ancient ritual of preparing and serving tea is sure to get your taste buds going for when you venture into the Katamachi district – known as 'The Scramble' which is packed with people, shops, restaurants and lively bars.

Day6

WEDNESDAY 25 SEPTEMBER 2019

Kanazawa to Kyoto

Today you leave Kanazawa feeling refreshed and immersed in the Japanese culture to head to Kyoto for three nights, a city which has one of the worlds largest collections of UNESCO World Heritage sites.

Day7-9

THURSDAY 26 SEPTEMBER – SATURDAY 28 SEPTEMBER 2019

Kyoto

Kyoto, meaning capital city, reflecting on its 1000 year history as the imperial city of Japan, is located on the central part of the island of Honshu. It's significance in Japanese history resounds throughout the city. It was saved from bombing in World War II and as a result has many historical buildings in tact which attract thousands of tourists year on year.

There are many ancient temples, tea ceremony masters, traditional ryokan inns, flower arranging, zen rock gardens and mysterious Geisha...all of which make Kyoto a truly mesmerising place to visit.

Day10

SUNDAY 29 SEPTEMBER 2019

Kyoto to Kobe City

Today you leave Kyoto for the vibrant Kobe City, ready for the build up to the next Scotland match.

Kobe City is set on a hillside sloping down to the sea and is a relatively small city that is easy to navigate around. In 1995, it was devastated by the Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake. Today, Kobe City has been rebuilt into a thriving metropolitan city and the three most pleasant neighbourhoods to explore are Kitano-chō, Nankinmachi Chinatown and, after dark, the bustling nightlife districts around Sannomiya.

Nankinmachi is packed with shops, restaurants and food stands that sell a variety of ramen. Sannomiya is home to the main business and entertainment area of Kobe City well known for its vibrant nightlife. You may wish to visit the Nada-Gogō neighbourhood which has an abundance of sake brewers as after all, Kobe City is one of Japan's great sake-producing cities.

Furthermore, the city is most famous for its beef.

Day11

MONDAY 30 SEPTEMBER 2019

Match Day

This evening, action begins as Scotland v Play-off winner

(19:15 Kick off) at Kobe Misaki Stadium. You will go to the stadium from your hotel and return to your hotel by own when the match finishes.

Day12

TUESDAY 1 OCTOBER 2019

Kobe City

Explore Kobe City at your own leisure today.

Day13

WEDNESDAY 2 OCTOBER 2019

Kobe City to Tokyo

Today you depart Kobe City to head back to Tokyo on the bullet train for a six night stay in Tokyo. Upon arrival into Tokyo you will go to your hotel by own.

Day14-18

THURSDAY 3 – MONDAY 7 OCTOBER 2019

Welcome back to Tokyo, with its plentiful neon skyscrapers and giant video screens. You can unpack and relax before you pick up where you left off from your last visit and perhaps this time around you may wish to experience the more alternative side of the city.

Day19

TUESDAY 8 OCTOBER 2019

Tokyo to Shizuoka

Today you travel from Tokyo to Shizuoka by Bullet train ready for tomorrow's match against Russia at the Shizuoka Stadium Ecopa.

While you are in Shizuoka, why not discover Fuji-san, Japanese largest mountain and symbol of pride. A good option is to disembark directly at the city of Fujinomiya before reaching Shizuoka City.

Day20

WEDNESDAY 9 OCTOBER 2019

Match Day

This evening, action begins as Scotland v Russia (16:15 Kick off) at Shizuoka Stadium Ecopa. You will go to the stadium from your hotel and return to your hotel by own when the match finishes.
